ECUMENICAL COUNCIL OF JERUSALEM

Paul started a firestorm when he began accepting converts into the church. He did not insist that they first become Jews. The conservatives within Christianity saw this as a dangerous break from tradition. In particular they demanded that new conversions be accompanied by circumcision--a painful rite in those days before anesthetics. The turmoil led to what has been called, "the first Ecumenical Council". The meeting probably took several weeks. We see only the start and the end. Essentially, the liberal wing won the day. The Council sent a letter to gentile Christians approving the new policy. It provoked great joy and a wave of new conversions.

The 24th Roanoke Lebanese Festival will be held May 30 - June 1, 2025, at St. Elias Maronite Catholic Church, 4730 Cove Road NW, Roanoke, VA 24017
Friday & Saturday: 11 AM - 9 PM

NOTICES

Please join the Knights of Columbus in honoring our U.S. military personnel who died while serving in the United States Armed Forces, on Memorial Day Monday May 26th. We will assemble at Mt. Carmel Catholic Cemetery Low Moor, rain or shine at 9:00am to place flags on Veteran graves and recite the Rosary. All parishioners, family, and friends are welcome.

St. Joseph's Bible Study continues to meet every Tuesday after noon Mass. The lessons are from The Word Among Us daily reading. Everyone is welcome. Those attending should bring a bag lunch. Coffee, tea and water are provided.

Sacred Heart - St. Joseph Knights of Columbus Council thanks all who are collecting aluminum cans and dropping them off in the orange bin located along the side of the Sacred Heart Rectory garage. Over 2130 lbs. or more than 69,000 cans have been recycled. Currently, the recycling rate is about 2320 pounds per year. The proceeds from recycling aluminum cans are used to fund Council initiatives. Be creative and ask your friends, neighbors, or a business to save aluminum cans for you to drop off at the Rectory garage.

Dear Lord, on this Memorial Day, we remember those who gave their lives in service to our country. We honor their sacrifice and pray for their souls. Grant them eternal peace and comfort their families with Your love. May their bravery inspire us to live with courage and integrity. We thank You for their dedication and ask You to bless their memories. May Your grace envelop their souls and may we never forget their sacrifice. Amen.

SHOW HOSPITALITY TO GOD

The concept of hospitality is fundamental to a stewardship way of life. When we envision hospitality, we naturally think of offering a sincere and warm welcome — to those new to our parish, for instance. We picture inviting them in and making them feel at home and at ease in our presence, communicating to them that they are highly valued.

Today’s Gospel reading from John invites us to think of hospitality in a slightly different way. In it, we hear Jesus speaking this to his disciples: “Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.”

Jesus is asking that we permit the Blessed Trinity to come and dwell within us. This is a stunning request. It tells us that our first and most privileged form of hospitality should be directed towards God Himself. How does one show hospitality to God? How do we make God “at home and at ease” within us? How can we communicate to God that He is “highly valued” by us? Jesus tells us how: we are to keep His word, to follow His teachings.

To keep His word, we must know His word. This takes discipline and effort on our part. We must make the study of Scripture and Church teaching a priority in our daily lives.

If we want our parish to be a place of genuine Christian hospitality, we must be sure that our own hearts are hospitable dwelling places for the Blessed Trinity. Then our smiles and words, our greetings and ministries will radiate with the warmth of God’s love. And our parish family will become at least a little bit like Heaven on earth. This is the simplicity and glory of a stewardship way of life.
